

New Intern Employer Questions

Art & Art History Internship for Credit

Thank you for your interest in employing a student intern from UNC Charlotte!

Before signing, please read the Guidelines & Responsibilities for Employing Interns, which also includes the US Department of Labor Guidelines Regarding Internship Programs.

Student Interns receive 3 hours of academic credit for 120 hours of work completed over the course of one academic semester. Typically during a regular 15-week semester, this works out to be 8 hours a week. During a 5-week summer session, it's 24 hours a week. Specific work schedules (days/times) are determined by the intern and the employer.

After the required 120 hours are complete, if the student continues working as an intern, then we strongly recommend that they be paid, if they are not already, since they cannot get course credit for two internships with one organization.

Towards the end of the semester or summer session, the site supervisor will receive an email from the instructor of record with a link to an Internship Evaluation form. The site supervisor should complete the survey in a timely manner in order for the student to receive a grade for the course.

Please Note: Whenever possible, the host organization should provide a computer and/or any required software for the student to use while completing work for the organization. If a student uses their own equipment and/or software, they risk breaking their educational use license agreements.
