

Thank you for visiting!

STORRS HALL

The David R. Ravin School of Architecture is located in its own building, Storrs Hall, designed by Charles Gwathmey of Gwathmey Siegel Associates in New York. The building houses design studios, classrooms and seminar rooms, computer labs, student lounges, an exhibition gallery, wood and metal labs, a digital fabrication lab, a library, audiovisual resources, a three-hundred-seat auditorium, a one-hundred-seat lecture hall, and staff and faculty offices.

Explore more online

More About Storrs
coa.charlotte.edu/architecture/facilities/

SoA Admissions
soa.charlotte.edu
soa-admissions@charlotte.edu
704-687-0101

WELCOME TO THE DAVID R. RAVIN SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE AT STORRS HALL SELF-GUIDED BUILDING TOUR

1 SoA Office & Lobby

2 Lambla Gallery

3 Auditorium 110

7 Second Floor Lobby

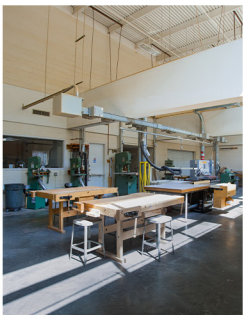

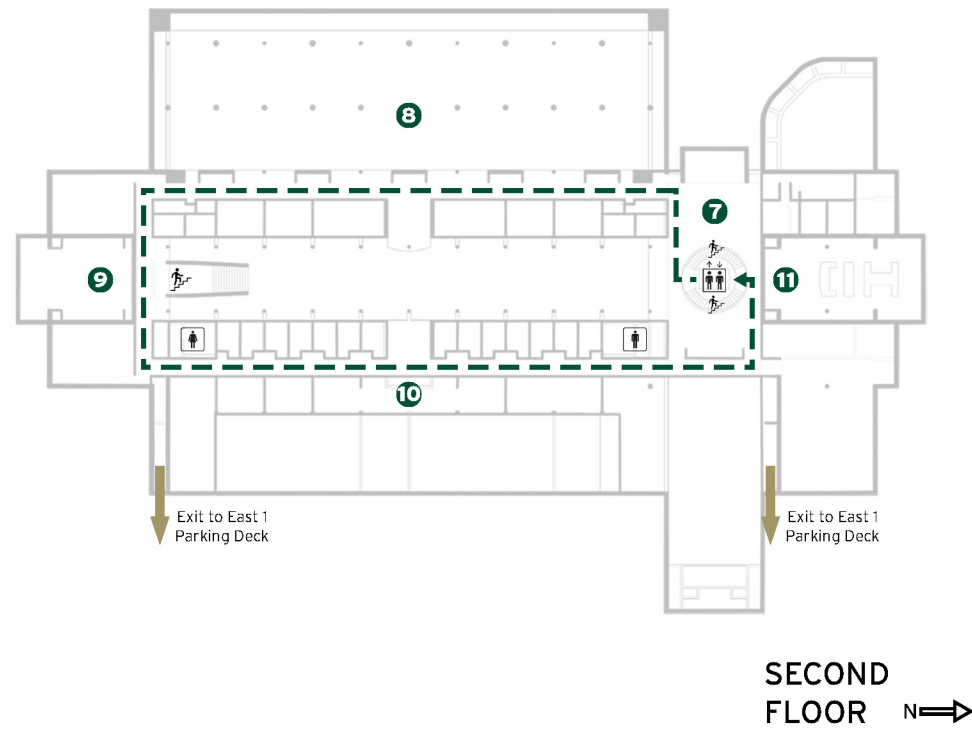

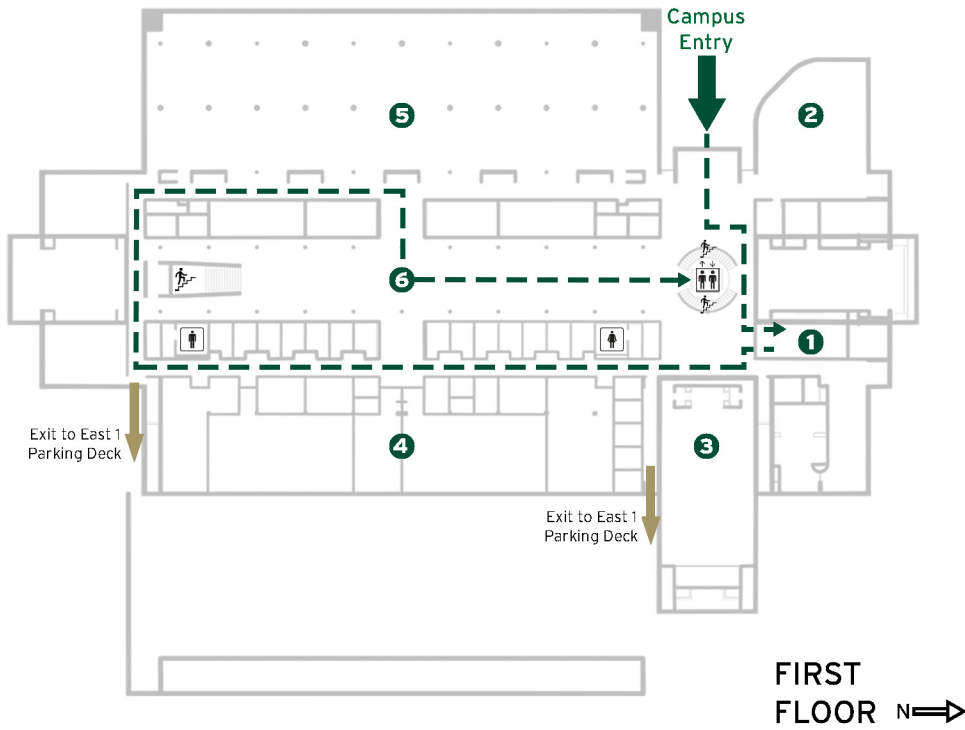

8 Second Floor Studios

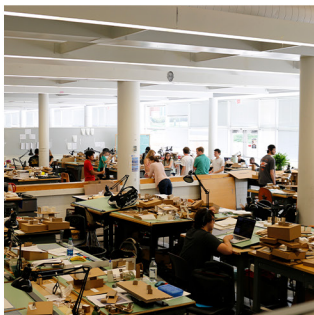

KEY

-  Restrooms
-  Elevator
-  Stairs
-  Main Entrance
-  Tour Path
-  Tour Stops

*Before beginning tour, please check in at the Main Office

4 Storrs FabLab

5 First Floor Studios

6 The Salon

9 Lecture Hall 290

10 Storrs Print Lab

11 Hight Architecture Library